Super Squad Soccer Terms & Conditions

General Information

Keep it fun.

Always practice good sportsmanship.

Please wear proper sports attire and futsal shoes whereas for football, please wear football boots.

Please consult your doctor before playing if you have any health issues.

Health and Safety

Your personal health and safety are your responsibility, never intend to hurt or injure anyone.

Super Squad Soccer is not liable or responsible for any personal injuries or death and all participants play with full knowledge and acceptance of the risks involved.

No fighting, any form of assault can be a serious offense. Should these circumstances happen, the management will contact and hand the case over to the local authorities.

Please keep your belongings safe.

The management is not liable to any loss or damage of items.

Booking and Check-in

Booking for every new game day will be released every Monday.

Players have the freedom to book their own slots for each game day.

Super Squad Soccer has the right to omit or adjust any bookings made at any time if necessary.

Reporting in and payment of all games booked must be made at the Admin Desk at least 15 minutes before kickoff time.

Players are allowed to book slots on the given game day if there are any available slots left.

Book Game Cancellation

It is very important to contact hotline (8237789) when you are making any cancellations.

Cancellations made any time before 24 hours from game day are allowed.

If a cancellation is made within 24 hours from game day, you will need to pay the booked slots as compensation.

No-shows will result in a penalty charge of BND$5.00.

Late arrivals will be allowed to continue to play at the game's official time, and payment for the game must be made.

However, if your slot is taken by another player, you will still need to pay the booked slot.

Game Format

Referees will be provided.

Bibs will be provided.

Games are played mostly in accordance to the standard international futsal rules and regulations, except for time and size of the pitch.

In circumstances where the number of players attending does not fulfill the slot capacity requirement in any game, we have developed a backup contingency where games will still carry on in order to achieve players' objectives to play futsal games.

Game length will be 20mins and having 2 halves, 10 min per half.

Switching positions from Goalie to Outfield and vice versa during game day will VOID points, hence the player will be ineligible for any points.

SSS has the right to modify, change, move or cancel your game(s) at any time.

Prizes

Super Squad Soccer has the right to change prize structure prior to informing players.
